DAILY GAZETTE.

From Vanity Fair.

Artemus Ward in the South.

HIS TRIALS AND ADVENTURES.

I had a narrer scape from the Sonny South. "The swings and arrers of outrajust fortin," alluded to by Hamlick, warn't nothin in comparison to my trubles. I cum pesky near swearin sum profane oaths mor'n onct, but I hope I didn't do it, for I've a promised she whose name shall be nameless (except that her initials is Betsey J.) that I'll jine the Meeting House at Baldinsville, just as soon as I can scrape money enough together so I can afford to be pius in good stile, like my welthy nabors.—But if I am conflisticated agin I'm afraid I shall continner on in my precent benited state for some time.

I figgered conspicyusly in many thrillin seens in my tower from Montgomery to my humsted, and on severil occasions I thawt "the grate comic paper" wouldn't never be inriched no more with my lubrications.—Arter biddin adoo to Jefferson D., I started for the depo. I saw a nigger sittin on a fence a-playin on a banjo. "My Afrikin Brother," sed I, cotin from a Track I wonct red, "you belong to a very interestin race. Your masters is goin to war excloosively on your account."

"Yes, boss," he replied, "an I wish 'em honerable graves!" and he went on playin the banjo, larfin all over and openin his mouth wide enuff to drive in an old-fashined 2 wheel shay.

The train of cars in which I was to trust my wallerable life was the scaliest, rickytiest lookin lot of consarns that I ever saw on wheels afore. "What time does this string of 2d-hand coffins leave?" I inquired of the depo master. He sed directly, and I went in & sot down. I hadn't more'n fairly squatted afore a dark lookin man with a swinister expression onto his countenance entered the cars, and lookin very sharp at me, he axed what was my prinsipuls.

"Secesh!" I answered. "I am a Dissoluter, I'm in favor of Jeff. Davis, Boregard, Pickens, Capt. Kidd, Bloobeard, Monroe, Edwards, the devil, Mrs. Cunningham and all the rest of 'em."

"You're in favor of the war?"

"Certingly. By all means. I am in favor of this war and also of the next war for over sixteen years!"

"War to the knife!" sed the man.

"Blud, Eargo, blud!" sed I, tho them words isn't origernal with me. Them words was rit by Shakspeare, who is ded. His Mantle fell onto the author of "The Seven Sisters," who's goin to have a Spring overcoat made out of it.

We got under way at larst, an' proceeded on our journey at about the rate of speed which is ginrally observed by properly-conducted funeral purcesshuns. A hansum yung gal, with a red musketer bar on the back part of her hed, and a sassy little black hat tipt over her forred, sot in the seat with me. She wore a little Secesh flag pind onto her hat, and she was a going for to see her troo love, who had jined the southern army, all so bold and gay. So she told me. She was chilly and I offered her my blanket.

"Father livin?" I axed.

"Yes, sir."

"Got any Uncles?"

"A heep. Uncle Thomas is ded, tho."

"Peace to Uncle Thomas's ashes, and success to him! I will be your Uncle Thomas! Lean on me, my pretty Secesher, and linger a Blisful repose!" She slept as secoorly as in her own housen, and didn't disturb the sollum stillness of the night with 'ary snore.

At the first stashun a troop of Sojers entered the cars and inquired if "Old Wax Works" was on bored. That was the disrespective stile in which they referred to me. "Becawz if Old Wax Works is on bored," sez a man with a face like a double-breasted lobster, "we're going to hang Old Wax Works!"

"My illustrious and patriotic Bummers!" sez I, a gittin up and takin orf my shappoo, "if you allude to A. Ward, it's my pleasin dooty to inform you that he's ded. He saw the errer of his ways at 15 minits past 2 yesterday, and stabbed hisself with a stuffed sled-stake, dyin in five beautiful tabloos to slow moosic! His larst words was, 'My perfeshernal career is over! I jerk no more!'"

"And who be you?"

"I'm a stoodent in Senator Benjamin's law offiss. I'm goin up North to steal sum spoons and things for the Suthern Army."

This was satisfactry and the intossicated troopers went orf. At the next station the pretty little Secesher awoke and sed she must git out there. I bid her a kind adoo and giv her sum provisions. "Accept my blessin and this hunk of gingerbred!"—She thankt me muchly and tript galy away. There's considerable human nater in a man, and I'm fraid I shall allers giv ade and cumfert to the enemy if he cums to me in the shape of a nice young gal.

At the next stashun I didn't get orf so easy. I was dragged out of the car and rolled in the mud for several minits for the purpuss of "takin the conseet out of me," as a secesher kindly stated.

I was let up finally, when a powerful large Secesher cum up and embraced me, and to show that he had no hard feelins agin me, put his nose into my mouth. I returned the compliment by placing my stummick suddenly agin his rite foot, when he kindly made a spittoon of his able-bodied face. Actooated by a desire to see whether the Secesher had been vaxinated, I then fastened my teeth into his left coat sleeve, and tore it to the shoulder. We then vilently bunted our heads together for a few minits, danced round a little, and sot down in a mud puddle. We riz to our feet agin & by a sudden & adort movement I placed my left eye agin the Secesher's fist. We then rushed into each other's arms and fell under a two-hoss wagon. I was very much exhaustid and didn't care about gettin up agin, but the man said he reckoned I'd better, and I conclooded I would. He pulled me up, but I hadn't bin on my feet more'n two seconds afore the ground flew up and hit me in the bed. The crowd sed it was high old sport, but I couldn't zakly see where the latture cum in. I riz and we embraced agin. We careered madly to a steep bank, when I got the upper hand of my antaggernist and threw him into a raveen. He fell about forty feet, striking a grindstone pretty hard. I understand he was injured. I haven't heered from the grindstone.

A man in a cockt hat cum up and sed he felt as tho an apology was doo me. There was a mistake. The crowd had taken me for another man! I told him not to mention it, and axed him if his wife and little ones were so's to be about, and got on bord the train, which had stopped at that station "20 minits for refreshments." I got all I wanted. It was the heartiest meal I ever et.

I was rid on a rale the next day, a bunch of blazin fire crackers bein tide to my cote tales. It was a fine spectycal in a dramatic pint of vu, but I didn't enjoy it. I had other adventers of a startlin kind, but why continner? Why lasserate the Public Boozum with these here things? Suffyst to say that I got across Mason & Dixie's line safe at last. I made tracks fur my humsted, but she with hume I was harnist for life failed to recognize, in the emashiated bein who stood before her, the gush n youth of forty-six summers who had left her only a few months afore. But I went into the pantry and brought out a certain black bottle. Risin it to my lips I sed, "Here's to you, old gal!" I did it so natral that she knowed me at wunce. "Those form. Them voice. That natral stile of doin things!—'Tis he!" she cried, and rushed into my arms. It was too much for her, & she fell into a swoon. I cum very near swoonding myself.

No more to-day, from yours for the Perpetration of the Union, and the bringin of the Goddess of Liberty out of her present bad fix. ARTEMUS WARD.

City of Janesville.

Thursday Evening, May 30, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us

Will there be a Fight?

We begin to doubt it. The signs are not favorable. We fear the southern troops will not remain together long enough for Gen. Scott to come up with them in regular scientific style, and give them a sound thrashing. The chivalry must eat, like common mortals, and as their whiskey, hog and hominy are getting short, how can they wait for the old general to come up with them?

Conflict between Military and Civil Authorities.

There is a conflict between the civil and military authorities at Baltimore, in which Chief Justice Taney takes decided ground for the supremacy of the civil authorities. It grows out of the arrest of John Merryman of Cockeysville, Maryland, on charge of participating in burning the bridges on the Northern Central railroad. The arrest was made by a military squad under the orders of Gen. Cadwallader, of the United States army; and the prisoner was taken to Fort McHenry, where he was detained. Mr. Merryman is a prominent and wealthy citizen of Baltimore county, and has for years occupied the position of president of the Maryland state agricultural society. It is understood that the proof is pretty conclusive of his complicity in the burning of the railroad bridges.

On Sunday, a writ of habeas corpus was issued by Chief Justice Taney, requiring Gen. Cadwallader to produce the body of Mr. Merryman on Monday, and show cause why he was detained. Gen. Cadwallader replied that he would not deliver up Merryman, as the president had authorized him to suspend the habeas corpus act whenever the public safety required it. Chief Justice Taney then issued a summons for Cadwallader to appear before the district court the next day. Gen. C. replied by asking for a postponement until he could obtain instructions from the president. The chief justice however, would consent to no delay, and ordered a writ of attachment to be issued against the General for contempt.

The marshal reported to the court, on Tuesday, that he was refused admittance to the fort. The chief justice declared that he should call upon the president to perform his constitutional duty, and enforce the decrees of the court.

The constitution expressly provides that the president may suspend the writ of habeas corpus in case of rebellion; and if he has not done it, it would seem to be high time that it should be done in Baltimore, and in every other place where there have been combinations to resist the laws by force of arms. It is idle to suppose that commanders cannot arrest and punish bridge burners and rebels without being subject to the annoying delays of civil courts. It would destroy the efficiency of our armies entirely.

It is probable that Taney is used by the secessionists, in this case, to embarass the government. He exhibits, by the activity with which he proceeds, a willingness to aid the traitors, quite in character with his previous acts and opinions.

Contraband of War.

Gen. Butler has declared slaves to be contraband, and receives such as run away and apply for admission into Fortress Monroe. In consequence of this he is likely to be overrun by these new species of contraband goods. Their masters have sent for some of them, but he declines to give them up unless the masters will take the oath of fidelity to the United States government.—The negroes are set at work, and will do good service for the army in the hot weather throwing up entrenchments and mounting guns. Having been employed by the rebels for this purpose, they can find no fault with the arrangement. So far Gen. Butler is right. Whether they are property to be confiscated, is another question, upon which all would not agree. It need not be discussed at this time, but we hope to see the same course taken wherever slaves apply for admission into our forts or armies. At the end of the war the masters who have been fighting the government, would have little chance of recovering their "property" which has been helping the government, even under the fugitive slave law, with Judge Taney to put it in force.

FLOYDISM AT MONTGOMERY.—The escaped robbers and traitors from Mr. Buchanan's cabinet, who took the lead in forming the rebel government at Montgomery, seem to be not more honest in their new sphere than they were in their old ones. Their thieving propensities have not been overcome by their professed "devotion to the south."—The New Orleans Delta, one of their own organs, says of them:

"At this point their noblest achievements seem to be the retention in and appointment to office of the veriest hacks of faction, the waste of much money, and the purchase of an old Spanish hulk, which a state survey had already condemned as rotten and worthless, for the enormous sum of fifty-three thousand dollars, of which political favorites of course had a big slice."

The Nashville Banner says Tennessee has received 7,500 Enfield rifles, among other arms, from the south.

War Items.

ALEXANDRIA, VA.—This place, become so famous within a few days, is a port of entry, situated on the right bank of the Potomac seven miles below Washington, and contains about nine thousand inhabitants.

Major General Butler is forty-three years old. He was born in Deerfield, Rockingham county, New Hampshire, in 1818.

HEALTH OF OUR TROOPS.—Miss Dix, good authority, informs the Washington Leader that there is very little sickness among the troops. The only cause hitherto existing for sickness, was the confinement of too great numbers of troops together, and their removal into camps has enabled each regiment to escape disease from this source.

Gen. Scott is said to have two nephews in the rebel army—the sons of a widowed sister, who has resided in Mississippi for a number of years.

THE WASHINGTON JAIL FULL OF REBELS.—The New York Tribune's Washington correspondent says: "On account of the accumulation of prisoners at the city jail growing out of the arrest of traitors here, the government finds it necessary to make special provisions for those who are daily captured. A large building, recently erected, has been taken possession of for this purpose."

O'Sullivan, the Albany soldier charged with writing and publishing injurious falsehoods relative to his commander, Col. Bryan, has been found guilty by court martial. His punishment has not yet been decided upon. It is death, by the articles of war.

The defense committee of New York city are now supporting three thousand and twenty-six families, left by volunteers in forty-three different regiments.

The rebels are making percussion caps in considerable quantities at Raleigh, and a powder mill near Nashville is kept constantly at work.

There is said to be a powder mill at Kingston, Ga., whose supply of saltpeter is procured at an adjacent cave.

The southern rebels are trying to rob Gen. Taylor of his laurels. They have the impudence to call Davis the "glorious hero of Buena Vista!" He is now the "glorious" hero of the southern conthieferacy, and no one will attempt to rob him of that laurel!

Massachusetts is employing her state prisoners in making equipments for the soldiers. They are prepared to make from 10,000 to 15,000 Minie rifle balls daily, and they have executed large orders for tin cups and tin canteens.

The Cincinnati Enquirer publishes a communication stating that one of Kentucky's fairest and most distinguished daughters has, at different times, conveyed out of the city two hundred Colt's revolvers under her hoops.

The contributions of citizens of New York for clothing and equipping four U. S. volunteer regiments of Missouri, already amount to $2,447, of which August Belmont and Royal Phelps gave $500 each. Adding the amount contributed in Boston, $1,000, and we have $3,447 from the patriotic east for the support of the Union cause in Missouri, and more to be raised.

Capt. Blandowski, who was shot in the late collision at St. Louis, died on Sunday, and his funeral was attended on Monday by all the military and a large throng of citizens.

Talk of "chivalry" in Virginia! The wife of Wm. McDonald, formerly of Brooklyn, arrived at New York on Friday, with five children, in a destitute condition, having been driven out of Norfolk, Va., by the state authorities. Her husband had been murdered.

The Mobile Mercury says an attempt has been made to enlist a company at St. Stephens, Ala., and not a single volunteer offered. A correspondent of the Mercury at St. Stephens predicts that Lincoln will take Mobile, and says that the people of that district, who are almost in a state of starvation, will look upon the Lincolnites as their deliverers.

A dirt train has commenced running between Cairo and Villa Ridge, twelve miles from Cairo, bringing down earth to form an embankment from levee to levee, below the St. Charles Hotel. A space of about five acres will be enclosed, which will afterwards be filled up about four feet above the grade of the levee. One company is detached each day for rough work in preparing the ground, clearing off obstructions, etc.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser says—"Jackson, the black-hearted and diabolical wretch whom Heaven will hold responsible for the wanton murder of the lamented Ellsworth, formerly lived in Chicago, and probably knew his victim by sight. During his residence in Chicago, his reputation was that of a murderer and bully, and in a rencontre in Kentucky, he took the life of his antagonist."

The obsequies attendant upon the passage of the body of Col. E. E. Ellsworth through New York city, on Saturday, were most imposing. After the remains had been taken to the Astor House, and funeral services held under the auspices of the relatives, they were taken to the City Hall, where they were viewed by at least ten thousand persons. The body was then followed to the boat by a vast procession of military, firemen and citizens, among whom were many of mark. The demonstration was alike a tribute of respect to the deceased, and the cause in which he sacrificed his life.

The secessionists of New Orleans are raising a subscription for the New York News, the organ of Congressman Ben. Wood, and of the New York city government. One canvasser got $600 in donations and 150 subscribers in a single day.

St. Paul, Minnesota, displays about fifty flags, nearly all made out of flannel, the people being too patriotic to use cotton.

Five companies from Fort Abercrombie, on the Red River of the north, and Forts Ripley and Ridgley, Min., are to pass thro' this state on their way east, in a few days.

Nothing is really troublesome that we do willingly.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

KENOSHA May 29.

The City Bank of Kenosha has gone by the board. Doors closed this morning. It is said that depositors and bill holders will be saved from loss.

NEW YORK, May 29.

The Commercial's Washington dispatch says Col. Butler, brother of Gen. Butler, had a long interview with the cabinet. Instructions may be sent to him regarding the method of dealing with fugitives. It is understood that Gen. Scott fully endorses the previous course of Gen. Butler regarding slaves.

Post's special.—Great interest is manifested in the Baltimore habeas corpus case. It is thought the government will respect the court's civil powers.

Secretary Cameron is ill.

The President has accepted 4 Illinois regiments, who came to him rather than wait state action. They include Ellsworth's original Zouaves and Hecker's German regiment.

It is stated Maj. Shailer has been tendered the colonelcy of the Fire Zouaves in place of the lamented Ellsworth. It is unknown whether he will accept.

In a day or two an advance column of the grand army will be pushed forward to Manassas Junction.

The 71st New York regiment have returned to the Washington navy yard. A false alarm took them down the river.

The government is satisfied that its naval preparations are in such a state of forwardness as to effectually blockade every southern port by June 15th.

Other election returns in Virginia show the vote in Mount Vernon, 76 for Union, 19 for secession. Menzel county gives 413 for Union.

Bartlett's naval brigade left for Fortress Monroe, numbering 750 men, with several James rifled cannon. They are all seamen.

The steamer Bienville, from Havana 25th has arrived. Money stringent at Havana.

BALTIMORE, May 29.

Col. Dorr's regiment passed through here to-day taking the northern road.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.

A western movement of the Philadelphia troops is on foot. Several regiments under Gen. Patterson leave at once on the Pennsylvania road. It is rumored their destination is Harper's Ferry.

XENIA, Ohio, May 29.

Richard A. Harrison, Union candidate for congress from the 7th district, was elected by a small majority. A very light vote was cast. The election was held to fill Tom Corwin's place.

WASHINGTON, May 29.

Carl Schurz has been deprived of the gratification of proceeding with his brigade to Fortress Monroe. His leave of absence as minister of Spain was to-day revoked, and he will at once enter on the discharge of his duties at Madrid.

The Secretary of the Treasury to-day telegraphed to the collector at Cincinnati an order to facilitate shippers of goods to the loyalists of Western Virginia, entering at the port of Wheeling, that section being exempt from the restriction of a blockade.

The general character of the correspondence just received here, shows a better understanding in European capitals of the true condition of affairs in this country.

The first diplomatic dinner of the President will take place Tuesday next.

The president has determined to appoint Hon. Mr. Schenck a Brigadier General.

Col. Anderson has been assigned the command of a western military department.

Gen. McDowell, commanding the new Virginia military geographical department, has no particular place for his head quarters. They will be moveable according to circumstances.

Information has reached Washington that the secession forces have thrown up earth works perhaps 200 feet square at Manassas Gap Junction, and commanding the track for perhaps a mile. They are under command of Gen. Bonham of South Carolina. Col. Magruder was there in command of a battery.

It is believed that Col. Renshaw's South Carolina regiment has moved up the road to Centreville, Fairfax county, to strengthen the position there in view of the probability that the federal troops would strike a blow at that point to cut off communication with Harper's Ferry.

NEW YORK, May 29.

The transport steamer Empire City arrived from Fortress Monroe, reports that the Harriet Lane had captured the schooners Catharine of Newburg, and Iris of Baltimore, both laden with naval stores.

The frigate Niagara arrived at Havana on the 19th, and sailed the 23d on a cruise.

The gunboat Huntsville arrived at Havana on the 22d.

BALTIMORE, May 29.

A gentleman from Norfolk says that Beauregard was expected there Tuesday night. The troops there don't exceed 7,000; accessions daily expected.

Sewall's Point battery was almost destroyed by guns from the Monticello. A large force is now repairing it.

It is anticipated that Butler will land forces at Allen View, six miles from Sewall's Point and ten from Norfolk.

In Portsmouth 70 votes were cast against secession by a rifle company, which was immediately disbanded.

They have but one rifled cannon at Sewall's Point.

BOSTON, May 29.

A correspondent of the Transcript states that the commanders of the Minnesota and Niagara are in possession of the names and descriptions of the vessels shortly expected at New Orleans with valuable arms and munitions of war purchased by the rebels in Europe. A close watch is arranged for their capture.

The ship Abellino, recently arrived at New Orleans from Boston, has been seized by the rebel authorities.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, May 29.

Col. Schuttner's regsment arrived this afternoon from St. Louis, and proceeded to Bird's Point, which they will permanently hold. They number over one thousand men, and are supplied with Minie rifles, camp equippage and provisions, etc., for thirty days. To-morrow two batteries will be furnished them from here. All came on the steamer Louisiana, which steamed around Battery Point, amid great enthusiasm on ship and shore. Gen Prentiss and staff escorted them to their new location, where their camp lines were defined by Col. Webster, but owing to the storm they remain on board to night.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather to-day, the work of fortification was commenced and several big guns were mounted.

Of all of Gen. Pillow's men, only five thousand one hundred are well armed, and those are principally at Union City and Randolph. Arms are arriving for the others. There is no rebel battery at Columbus, Pillow having seized the guns intended for that place. A secession flag has, however been raised at Columbus, and troops are organizing there for an expected attack from here.

News that Gen. McClelland had sent Ohio troops into western Virginia to-day, gives satisfaction here and strengthens the popular belief of an early movement down there. S.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., May 29.

It is known that the secessionists at Williamsport and Hagerstown are concerting a plan to enable the Virginians to invade Washington. This move is supposed to indicate an attempt to interfere with the election of Thomas to congress, which is deemed an overwhelming certainty.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.

Harper's Ferry, if it is not already evacuated, will soon fall. The troops there are not near so numerous as has been stated. There are not over 4,000 in and about the place. They are miserably equipped and nearly starved.

Gen. McClelland, with 15,000 troops, is already on the march towards Harper's Ferry; another force will proceed from Chambersburg under Gen. Keim; another from the Relay House, and still another from Washington to cut off the rebels.

The government has no official intelligence from our ministers by the last mail from Europe. The impression, however, which the Ætna's mail conveys respecting American affairs there is entirely satisfactory to our government, and clearly indicate that great changes had already taken place in the minds of the people.

A general order has been issued by the war department granting to volunteers now enlisted, the same money allowances for clothing as the regulars.

The total number of regiments accepted from Illinois, for the war, is now eighteen, inclusive of Hecker's German regiment.

The St. Louis regiment of Col. Frank P. Blair, Jr., has been ordered to Fort Monroe.

Tribune's despatch—At Grafton there were 2500 troops on Sunday and more were hourly expected from Harper's Ferry. Several bridges had been destroyed, among them one at Clarksburg on the Northwestern railroad, and one about half way between Wheeling and Grafton. The Iron Monroe bridge was threatened, but Gov. Hicks sent a strong body of Maryland troops to protect it.

One end only of the great rock blown down at Harper's Ferry had fallen on the track, and two hours' work with gun powder would suffice to remove it.

Gen'l Johnston, it is said, considered that he had time sufficient to secure his retreat.

Gen'l McClelland has thrown strong bodies of troops from Parkersburg and Wheeling towards Grafton, but some delay would be occasioned by rebuilding bridges.

The force at Chambersburg now threaten Harper's Ferry.

To-day Gov. Banks was commissioned as Major General, and was ordered on duty with the purpose of placing him in command of an important column.

Ten thousand troops will rendezvous at Cairo for an immediate move on Memphis.

The government is now putting forth all their vigor, and will urge the campaign to the lowest point of latitude consistent with the climate, and the epidemics of August and September, without, perhaps, any formal proclamation for the number of forces needed.

Lieut. Slemmer arrived in Washington from Fort Pickens, and says the troops there are able to hold the fortress against any force that will be brought against it. The garrison numbers about 10,000 men, and the rebel forces under Gen. Bragg about 6,000.

It is understood that Major Gen'l Fremont will be assigned to the command of the western division of the army, to operate in the Mississippi valley.

Four men who were forced into service by the Virginia authorities, at Richmond, have arrived here. They report a bad condition of affairs in Richmond. The troops are poorly provided for, having to get food as best they can. Incendiary fires and robberies are of frequent occurrence.

On the day that government troops entered Alexandria, a messenger arrived and reported federal troops within an hour's march, and advancing rapidly. Immediately the whole body commenced running off through the woods.

NEW YORK, May 30.

The Times' Washington correspondent speculates as follows, under date of May 29th:

The government is becoming embarrassed with the question of how the prisoners captured in the conflict now going on shall be disposed of. Scouts are daily picking up men. The number of disunionists already taken exceed 100. The rebels are capturing Union men, thinking when they have a sufficient number they will be able to secure the release of the 36 rebels captured at Alexandria. If the government treat those men as rebels taken in arms against the government, and should a system of exchange be adopted, there is in the act the recognition of the rebels as belligerents, according to all laws of nations. The cabinet have discussed this point several times without coming to any result.

The government is assured that there are no rebel forces at Fairfax Court House.—There were troops at that point, but they have fallen back on the main body at Manassas Gap. They have literally eaten up everything to be obtained at Fairfax and were driven back for fear of starvation.

It appears by advices from Fortress Monroe that there is likely to be a stampede of slaves throughout Virginia.

WASHINGTON, May 29.

World's despatch.—Two lieutenants in the rebel army have resigned, having become utterly disgusted with affairs. The troops are poorly fed, and had received no pay.

A letter dated Galveston, Texas, May 19, says it learned yesterday that all our ports are blockaded. The government vessels fired into and stopped a couple of southern vessels, and our ardent southern men are hot about it. We have two forts on the beech built of sand bags, and seven or eight pieces of artillery. Everything is very dull here. Every one out of employment.

WASHINGTON, May 30.

An agent arrived this morning from the neighborhood of Centralia, Va., 23 miles from Alexandria. He says that there were reports of about 4,000 secession troops thereabouts. He also confirms the report that prominent men continue to be seized and conveyed farther into Virginia as hostages for the safety of about 40 secession soldiers now in Washington awaiting orders of the government.

BALTIMORE, May 30.

The steamer Adelaide from Old Point Comfort arrived this morning and reports all quiet.

The steamer State of Georgia landed the 1st regiment of New York at Fort Monroe yesterday.

Large numbers of Ohio troops were reported to be at Little York, Pa., this morning on their way to this city.

HALIFAX, May 30.

The steamship America arrived at this port this a. m. with dates to the 19th inst. Breadstuffs downward, provisions steady. Minister Dallas is passenger in the America. The America brings a million in specie. The Galloway contract has been annulled, but it is stated that the steamers will continue to run. The steamer Hibernian broke down and returned. The North Briton took her place, leaving Liverpool on the 18th. Minister Adams has presented his credentials at court.

Debate had taken place in the house of lords upon the American blockade and other privateering questions, in which the speakers oppose the idea of privateers being regarded as pirates.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, May 30.

Flour receipts 11,220 bbls. Market heavy and declining. Sales 8000 bbls., 4,95a5,00 super western, 5,10a5,30 common to medium extra western. Receipts of wheat 87,561 bu. Market heavy and drooping, sales 5,600 bu., 1,00 common Chicago spring, 1,10 common Mil. club, 1,18 prime Mil. club.

Official Proclamations.

Postmaster General Blair on Saturday issued the following order:

All postal services in the states of Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, will be suspended from and after the 31st inst. Letters for offices temporarily closed by this order will be forwarded to the Dead Letter office, except those for Western Virginia, which will be sent to Wheeling.

Copies of the following proclamation by Maj. Gen. Sandford, of the New York state militia, in the service of the United States, were extensively circulated in Fairfax county, Va., on Saturday:

HEADQUARTERS, DEP'T OF FAIRFAX, VA.
ARLINGTON HOUSE, May 25.

Fairfax county being occupied by the troops under my command, I deem it proper to repeat the publicity of the assurance I have previously given to many of the good citizens about me, that all its inhabitants may return to or remain in their houses and their usual pacific occupations in peace and confidence, and with assured protection to their persons and property, as the United States forces in Virginia will be employed for no other purpose than that of the suppressing of unlawful combinations against the constituted authorities of the Union, and of causing the laws thereof to be duly respected and executed.

By order of Major Gen. Chas. W. Sandford.

GEO. W. MORRILL, Div. Inspector.

Gen. McClellan's Address to the People of Western Virginia.

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T OF THE OHIO,
CINCINNATI, May 26, 1861.

To the Union Men of Western Virginia:

VIRGINIANS:—The general government has long enough endured the machinations of a few factious rebels in your midst.—Armed traitors have in vain endeavored to deter you from expressing your loyalty at the polls; having failed in this infamous attempt to deprive you of the exercise of your dearest rights, they now seek to inaugurate a reign of terror, and thus force you to yield to their schemes, and submit to the yoke of the traitorous conspiracy, dignified by the name of Southern Confederacy.—They are destroying the property of citizens of your state, and ruining your magnificent railways.

The general government has heretofore carefully abstained from sending troops across the Ohio, or even from posting them along its banks, although frequently urged by many of your prominent citizens to do so. It was determined to await the result of the late election, desirous that no one might be able to say that the slightest effort had been made from this side to influence the free expression of your opinion, although the many agencies brought to bear upon you by the rebels were well known. You have now shown, under the most adverse circumstances, that the great mass of the people of western Virginia are true and loyal to that beneficent government under which we and our fathers have lived so long. As soon as the result of the election was made known, the traitors commenced their work of destruction.

The general government cannot close its ears to the demand you have made for assistance. I have ordered troops to cross the river. They come as your friends and brothers—as enemies only to the armed rebel who are preying upon you. Your homes, your families and your property are safe under our protection. All your rights shall be religiously respected.

Notwithstanding all that has been said by the traitors to induce you to believe that our advent among you will be signalized by interference with your slaves, understand one thing clearly—not only will we abstain from all such interference, but we will, on the contrary, with an iron hand, crush any attempt at insurrection on their part. Now that we are in your midst, I call upon you to fly to arms and support the general government. Sever the connection that binds you to traitors—proclaim to the world that the faith and loyalty so long boasted by the Old Dominion, are still preserved in western Virginia, and that you remain true to the stars and stripes.

(Signed) G. B. McCLELLAN,
Major General Commanding.

TROUBLES IN THE CAMP—THE SECESSIONISTS PLAYING THEIR GAME OF THE JEFF. DAVIS GOVERNMENT.—Gov. Brown, of Georgia, has issued a proclamation forbidding the military companies of that state from carrying arms or accoutrements of any kind beyond the state limits, without his consent. The Savannah Republican comments on this order as follows:

"Whether the governor designs to refuse his consent in all cases, or merely requires that a proper respect should be shown him by those companies which leave the state under orders from the confederate government, does not appear. In the former event, the order is likely to produce no little confusion in the movements of our armies.

The confederate states have existed but for a day, and we have no thought that they are prepared to furnish arms, and in the time required, particularly under anything like an emergency. They must then rely upon the several states, and though some confusion may exist, owing to the variety of arms in the service, it will be far less than that to be occasioned by the presence of troops in time of battle without arms and accoutrements at all.

"Gov. Brown may be technically right in this order; but he has, at least, selected an unfortunate time for issueing it. From the beginning, a misunderstanding seems to have existed between him and the confederate authorities, to be found with no other state, and it is high time it had been brought to a close. It has been a source of serious confusion and embarrassment in all our movements for defense, and, if allowed to remain, will wholly demoralize the service."

A lady just from Charleston informs the New York Times that she is well informed of the sentiments of the free colored and slave population of Charleston.

She states that they are unanimous in the desire for an insurrection, if there is the slightest chance of being successful. They all believe that the army of the north is going down to set them free. On the plantations there is so much apprehension that the hoes, axes, and every other implement that is likely to be made available as weapons, are locked up at night, to prevent their being used by the slaves.

LARGE SHIPMENTS.—It will be seen by reference to our commercial column that the shipments of wheat from this port yesterday, reached the respectable amount of 245,933 bushels. The destinations of shipments were as follows: for Buffalo, 207,819 bushels; for Oswego, 18,200; for Liverpool, direct, 19,914 bushels.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

"All We Ask is to be Let Alone."

As vonce I valked by a dismal swamp,
There sot an old cove in the dark and dampt,
And at everybody as passed that road
A stick or a stone this Old Cove throwed,
And venever he flung his stick or his stone,
He'd set up a song of "Let me alone!"

"Let me alone, for I loves to shy
These bits of things at the passers by—
Let me alone, for I've got your tin
And lots of other traps snugly in—
Let me alone, I'm rigging a boat
To grab vatever you've got afloat—
In a veek or so I expects to come
And turn you out of your ouse and ome—
I'm a quiet old cove, says he, with a groan.

Just then came along, on the self-same vay—
Another old cove, and began for to say—
"Let you alone! That's comin' it strong!—
You've ben let alone—a darned sight too long—
Of all the scare that I ever heerd!
Put down that stick! (You may well look skeer'd)
Let go that stone! If you once show fight,
I'll knock you higher than any kite.
You must have a lesson to stop your tricks,
And cure you of shying them stones and sticks,
And I'll have my hardware back, and my cash,
And knock your scow into a tarnal smash.
And if ever I catches you 'round my ranche,
I'll string you up to the nearest branch.
The best you can do is to go to bed,
And keep a decent tongue in your head;
For I reckon before you and I are done,
You'll wish you'd let honest folks alone."

The old cove stopped, and the t'other old cove
He sot quite still in his cypress grove,
And he looked at his stick, revolvin' slow
Vether t'were safe to shy it or no—
And he grumbled on in an injured tone,
"All that I asked vos, let me alone."

THE NORTHERN ARMY AND THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE.—A Washington correspondent under a recent date, writes as follows:

Acts of nobleness, heroism and disinterested benevolence are almost of daily occurrence among the various patriotic bands of soldiers in and about the city, and thousands of southern people who have been frightened almost out of their wits at the stories told of the northern barbarians, have not only been undeceived, but charmed by the gallant, manly bearing of the great body of men here. The pious, good old lady in Maryland, expressed it when she said that "she was not only not afraid of praying soldiers, but that she knew the country was safe in their hands." This is Gen. Scott's opinion, for he says that a hundred thousand men cannot take this capital now, and I suppose most of your readers will admit that he ought to know. You have doubtless all heard of the soldiers at the great fire, which would have destroyed Willard's Hotel, but for their prompt and efficient aid, and a number of equally good things they have done because they could not help it; but perhaps you have not heard of the following:—

Several hundred soldiers were stationed on the eastern branch of the Potomac last week, and before they got their camp arrangements perfected, they did pretty much as they pleased—they fished, went in bathing, &c. Some two or three hundred of them strayed off up the branch a mile or two after dinner the other day, and coming to a farm, they entered into a conversation with the farmer who was planting corn.—They were soon gratified to learn that he was a good Union man, without an "if" or a "but," but for the Union unconditionally.

He happened to remark by way of excusing himself from further conversation, so as to go on with his work, that he was late in getting his corn planted this year, owing to the difficulty from the scarcity of hired help, and the time he had spent in standing by the stars and stripes. Without another word, the whole crowd got over into the field, went to work, and before night all his corn was planted, and the boys returned to the camp shouting for the Union and the old flag.

TELEGRAPH LINE TO THE PACIFIC.—The different companies interested in this enterprise are crowding forward the work with the utmost zeal. We saw at the warehouse of Messrs. Porter & Deuel, of this city, one day last week, several tons of the wire, belonging to the Union company, and Mr. Porter informed us there was a much larger quantity at the landing, besides some forty hogsheads filled with insulators. The materials are soon to be transmitted to their department of the line.

The Union company build from Julesburg to Salt Lake, from which latter place the California company connects it with the California lines. The Western company finish their line from Fort Kearney to Julesburg. It is the intention of the different companies to complete the line through to California this season, and place us, before the next winter, in telegraphic communication with both oceans. The telegraph is the forerunner of the railroad, and before many years we may expect to see the steam horse following the telegraph line up the valley of the Platte and through the Rocky Mountains.—Nebraska Republican.

THE FIRST REGIMENT ORDERED.—We learn from a reliable source that Col. Starkweather received a telegram from the war department, notifying him to be in readiness to march at two hours' notice. Their destination is Washington. The colonel expects to leave within forty-eight hours.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

COUGHS.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Public Meeting.

To the Citizens of Janesville:—

Within a few days the Light Guard of this city will be called into active service. The officers and men composing this company are all well and favorably known. In fact no company in the state which will make up the new regiments, will excel it as regards men of moral worth and true devotion to the flag of our country. But the officers are not in a condition, pecuniarily, to provide themselves with proper dress and arms. Is it not the duty of the citizens of Janesville to provide them, and thus show them that we are not ungrateful to those who volunteer to serve their country in this her hour of peril? All therefore favorable to acting in this matter, are requested to meet at the Hyatt House hall, to-morrow evening, (Friday), at 7½ o'clock. In a matter of so vital an interest to the city and the country, we hope to see a large attendance and liberal provisions made for the accomplishment of the object.

MANY CITIZENS.

COMMISSIONS ISSUED.—The Madison papers state that commissions have been issued to the officers of the six regiments authorized to be raised by the legislature.—These officers are the same as we published yesterday. Four of the colonels live in Milwaukee, and three of the four are lawyers.

COMMISSARY GENERAL.—W. W. Tredway has resigned as acting commissary general, and the governor has appointed Edwin R. Wadsworth, of Beloit, as commissary general. Mr. Wadsworth is an excellent business man, and a gentleman of high character. The appointment will be favorably received. Mr. Tredway, in the discharge of his duties as quarter-master general, occupies the senate chamber for his office.

APPOINTMENTS.—Thomas Hood of Madison and Isaac Lain of Waukesha, are said to be two of the commissioners appointed by Gov. Randall to purchase the $50,000 worth of arms for the state, authorized by the legislature. The other commissioner is not stated.

A WISCONSIN BOY IN THE SOUTHERN ARMY.—Israel Green, son of Thomas Green of Green Bay, who for some years has been a lieutenant in the marine corps of the United States army, resigned his position, and has since accepted a commission under Gen'l Lee, in the southern army.

MORE ENVELOPES.—We have another order from Mr. Dearborn for patriotic envelopes and letter sheets, which, when filled, will make 65,000 for him. We have also printed for other parties sufficient to make the whole number printed 75,000. Surely, the red, white and blue are popular emblems of the prevailing feeling in the country.

FROST.—For two nights past there has been a slight frost. To what extent injury has been inflicted we do not know.

A COSTLY BONFIRE.—Last week, at St. Louis, bills to the amount of $5,000,000 of the old issue of the Missouri Bank, were placed on a dray, carried to the foundery of J. D. Dowall, thrown under the boilers, a match applied, and steam raised by their agency.

ARMAMENT AT FORT MONROE.—There are 329 guns mounted in Fort Monroe, and 210 more to be mounted. Eight columbiads are mounted, and 16 mortars. There is one gun outside the fort weighing 50,000 pounds, and throwing a ball of 400 pounds 7 miles—the largest in the world.

WELL DISTRIBUTED.—Governor Olden, of New Jersey, has appointed an Episcopalian, a Presbyterian, a Universalist, a Methodist, and a Roman Catholic, as chaplains to the five regiments from that state. The Roman Catholic chaplain is the Rev. Geo. H. Doane of Newark, a son of the late Bishop Doane.

A NEW KIND OF TIME.—We have heard of fast time, slow time, good time, poor time, and a variety of other kinds of time, until we thought there was no kind of time we were unacquainted with. The Monroe Sentinel, however, beats us, and has discovered something new. Here is what it says:

It is "Squab Time" in the pigeon roost. Now is the time for getting the young ones. They are said to be very fat and are about beginning to fly. No gun is necessary to take them, but the boys rap on the trees and the squabs hop out. A race then ensues, and the pigeon is run down. Wagon loads of them are brought to town daily.

The Green county volunteers have taken the oath of allegiance. It was administered by Judge Dunwiddie, with due form and solemnity, at the company's drill room in Monroe.

It is said that Caleb Cushing, of Mass., has just failed in business, on account of extensive but unprofitable western land speculations entered into several years since.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—A boy in Westport, Dane county, had his collar bone broken a few days since, by a sheep. The sheep was a pet one, and the boy was attempting to prevent it from following some cows. Somewhere in the course of the proceedings, the boy was getting through a rail fence, when the sheep made a drive at him and hit him hard enough to fracture the bone.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO., No. 3.—This company will meet for practice on Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Let every member be on hand. By order of the foreman,

D. C. WARD.

J. T. WILCOX, Sec'y.

Mr. William Brace.

Mr. William Brace of the town of Janesville, Rock county, died at his residence on the 21st of May, aged nearly 59 years. He was in feeble health for quite a number of years, and for about a year past, his physical sufferings were fearfully intense. He was one of our earliest settlers, having immigrated to this county from New York in 1841. An affectionate and beloved husband and father, a kind and respected neighbor, and an honest and honored citizen, he fulfilled life's high mission well, and died in full hope of a glorious immortality through the atoning merits of Christ. A very large and deeply interested concourse of people assembled at his funeral indicated the general respect for their departed neighbor and friend, and their deep sympathy for his bereaved family. IMPROVEMENTS IN JANESVILLE.—Notwithstanding the war and the trouble in the currency an active spirit of business and improvement is visible in Janesville. Besides the fine business blocks commenced by Jackman & Smith and Jenkins & Dewey, a considerable number of first class dwellings are under progress of construction. It is a general remark among our citizens that more building is going on this season than at any former season for several years past. Aside from the new building erecting, improvements are making to others, and the services of carpenters, painters and gardeners are called into requisition to further beautify some pleasant home. Our business streets daily present a scene of activity, encouraging for the present and hopeful for the future.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?—We notice a new sign on the front of McKey & Brother's store. It probably indicates a golden fleece within.

MILITARY DRILL.—Col. White's class will meet at the Hyatt House Hall to-night for drill. Let every member be present.

DISCREDITED BANKS.—We understand from good authority that the banks in Milwaukee are receiving the bills of the City Bank of Kenosha and the Waupun Bank on deposit, and will continue to do so.—Parties owning them are able to respond to any call that the Bank Comptroller may make upon them, and if they were not, the other banks are disposed to assist them. Both banks are going into liquidation, and have only about $40,000 circulation. The Rock County Bank and the banking house John P. Hoyt & Co., of this city receive them of their depositors as usual.

A RUNAWAY AND A HORSE KILLED.—This forenoon a fine team belonging to Mr. J. J. Keith, of Johnstown, was standing unhitched near the depot before a wagon loaded with lumber. The horses became frightened by the blowing of a whistle, and commenced running. At the Ford House they ran against a lamp post, broke the post and killed one of the horses.

A team should under no circumstances be left in the city untied, and especially about the depot. Aside from such a loss as Mr. Keith has suffered, human lives are endangered.

GOLD COMING WEST.—The Chicago Tribune of this morning says that large shipments of gold are being made by the American Express Company from New York to Chicago. The amount received yesterday was $133,000, and within the last four days $477,000 has been received in that city.

Our farmers can command the gold, or its equivalent, if they will decide to do so. But if the gold received in the west is to be sold for 10 or 15 per cent. premium, and the wheat then bought with "stump-tail" currency, speculators only will reap the benefit of the importation of specie. Get gold, or what will make New York exchange at a decent rate, or keep your grain.

THE AVENGER OF ELLSWORTH.—New York has furnished another name for the embalming process of history. It will be written of Francis E. Brownell that he was "the Avenger of Ellsworth."

Young Brownell was born in Troy. The Whig, of that city, states that he will be twenty-one years of age next month. He gave up a lucrative situation to enter the ranks of Col. Ellsworth's regiment, as a private soldier. This step was taken with the approbation of his father, Mr. Charles Brownell, a very worthy citizen, and acting superintendent of the poor. Frank is a tall, strong young man, has always stood well in the regiment, and entered as zealously into his military duties as he prosecuted the labors of fireman in Washington Volunteer Fire Company of Troy, and afterwards in Engine Co. No. 1, to which he still belongs.

The Times says that he telegraphed to his father immediately after the death of the lamented Ellsworth, the following laconic despatch:

"FATHER—Col. Ellsworth was shot dead this morning. I killed his murderer.

FRANK."

The members of the engine company to which Brownell belongs held a meeting on Friday evening and passed resolutions in his honor. The citizens of Troy are preparing a medal which will be presented to him on his return to the city, as a member of the escort accompanying Col. Ellsworth's remains.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

WARLIKE MOVEMENTS IN SOUTHERN PENNSYLVANIA.—The government has accepted all the regiments organized for the war in Pennsylvania—we believe forty in number.

The 12th Pennsylvania regiment, encamped at York, received orders from the war department at Washington on Friday evening, to put themselves in readiness, with forty rounds of ammunition and cooked rations, to march at a moment's notice. We presume their destination is Harper's Ferry, York being on the railroad connecting with the camp at Chambersburgh, and thence 22 miles by railroad to Hagerstown, which is only 23 miles from Harper's Ferry. Campbell's Flying Artillery of six pieces, has also been ordered from York to Chambersburgh. These movements are doubtless intended as precautionary to a possible invasion of Pennsylvania from the rebel troops at Harper's Ferry.

Between Point of Rocks, which is eight miles below Harper's Ferry, and Williamsport, twenty-three miles above, there are scattered at various points, 35 pieces of cannon, 20 of these being brass field pieces, and 9,500 troops, consisting of 2,500 Alabamians, Mississippians, North Carolinians and Georgians; the rest being Virginians. —Chicago Journal.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

PARDONED.—Edward Kavanaugh, convicted in April term 1860, in the Municipal Court of Milwaukee, for assault with intent to kill, and sentenced to three years imprisonment in state prison, has been pardoned out by the Governor.

It is denied by the Chicago Times, that Mr. McCormick, proprietor of that paper, has proposed to equip the Irish Brigade at his own expense. The Times calls the story a ruse.

THE WORD, OR OVERBOARD.—The Bangor Whig says that during a drill of Capt. Burton's six-footers at Oldtown, a few days ago, while marching upon a platform toward the river, where the platform ended, no order to halt being given, they kept on until ten had jumped into the river and commenced swimming. Had not the order been given the whole company would have followed them.

The famous Gen. Ward B. Burnet, of New York, who was awarded the snuff-box of Gen. Jackson for being the bravest man in the Mexican war, from the city of New York, is in Chicago. He has recently held the office of surveyor general of Nebraska; he has given up that post, and expects to be placed in command of one of the New York brigades, and proceed immediately to the seat of war.

One of the editors of the Springfield State Journal, just returned from a trip to Cairo, says:—"Vegetation in southern Illinois is much further advanced than here. The corn generally is well up, and has mostly been plowed over once or twice.—The wheat also is heading out in fine style, and promises a splendid yield, while such luxuries as green peas and strawberries are very common things."

The Mississippi Central railroad company have issued circulars to all their northern connections, requesting them not to issue tickets to be used over that road, and announcing that they have already discontinued ticketing passengers coming north over roads north of the Ohio river.

The Springfield Republican says that a private letter from Madrid received in that city, states positively that Mr. Preston, our minister there, has been using all his influence at the Spanish court, in behalf of secession and the interests of the southern confederacy.

The circulation of the Bank of England is now £20,970,176, and its whole bullion is £12,838,648.

At New Orleans, on Saturday, for example, superfine flour was held at $10 per barrel; mess pork $25@$26, whisky 27½@30 cents per gallon, and white corn 85 cents per bushel. Flour has advanced one hundred per cent. since the date of the blockade. A New Orleans despatch published in the Louisville Journal, reports a sale of 300 bags good fair Rio coffee on Friday at seventy cents per pound. Presently the rebels will begin to discover the extent of their dependence upon the west.

A LIVING WHALE TRANSPORTED FROM RIVER DU LOUP TO PORTLAND.—We mentioned in our last impression that a living whale has been transported by rail from River du Loup to Portland. We have now some further particulars of this remarkable fact. On Monday evening last this dweller of the seas, measuring 14 feet in length, well boxed and covered with sea-weed, passed Island Point on his way to Boston. He was captured at the River du Loup, for Mr. Cutting, the enterprising proprietor of the Aquarial Gardens at Boston, at an expense of $400, in addition to which is $400 for freight by special train through to Boston. We are told that a tank is made specially for his whaleship, of one and a half inch plate glass, and having pipes from the reservoir at a cost of $20,000. Mr. J. Martin, superintendent of the eastern division of the Grand Trunk railway, accompanied this special train, and saw that this extraordinary visitor received his drinks at every water station. A special train at Portland conveyed him to Boston—Montreal Gazette 23d inst.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

"INVENTORS are public benefactors. To be liberal in their protection, is only to be just towards the rights of property, and tends to increase the public wealth and hastens the progress of practical improvements and of science. * * * The settled doctrine of the courts, now, under the light of large experience, is, to incline to constructions most favorable to patents."—Extract from opinion of U. S. Court in a late Patent Case.

Three-fifths of the earth's surface is covered with water. Vast sums of money and the best mechanical and engineering skill has, for ages, been employed to perfect machinery to bring this universal and indispensable element into convenient use.

May's Patents.

Double and Single Acting Pumps.

☞ For any depth of mining shafts and wells, open or drilled, to 500 feet.

☞ No suction pipes, no packing, no bolts, no pumping rods.

☞ Are composed of two metalic cylinders and two brass valves, and wrought-iron conducting pipe.

☞ Are operated by a wrought-iron lever, and by means of a compensating balance device, they work very easy by hand, wind mill or other power, at whatever depth, and work without noise.

☞ They cannot freeze.

Save Repairs, Vexation and Expense!!!

☞ Those longest in use (about 2 years) need no repairs and exhibit no perceptible wear, and possess valuable qualities unknown in any other pumps.

From the favorable opinions of Agriculturalists and others using these Engines and Pumps, together and separate, the following are selected:

Pumps, Without Engine,

In a half hour at ordinary pumping speed, I supply my stock of from forty to fifty head of cattle and horses, with one of May's Patent Pumps. Well 70 feet deep, last 30 feet drilled. I can find no fault with this pump, and use it in place of another kind that was very often out of repair. Being composed of few and strong pieces, and built on scientific principles, I think they must be very durable. R. W. SCHENCK.

Bradford, Rock county, Wis., January 29th, 1861.

I supply with water 600 sheep, some 60 head of cattle and 10 head of horses, with May's Patent Pump. Its great strength, apparent durability and above all the great amount of water it raises in a short time, and its easy working, gives it with me a decided preference over any other pump in the market.

C. M. CLARK.

Whitewater, Walworth Co., Wis., Jan. 31st, 1861.

Since the 1st of October last we have been using one of May's Patent Pumps, and it gives us entire satisfaction. Our well is 126 feet deep and the pump is worked by horse power or by hand. In addition to pumping water for stock and farm purposes, we use large quantities for our Brewery. REEVES & WADDLE.

Middleton, Dane county, Wis., Jan. 22d, 1861.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps in place of a deep well pump of another kind, that was often out of order and worked hard. Well 122 feet deep, 72 feet drilled in solid rock, and pump placed 101 feet from surface. Its great strength and simplicity pleases me, and am surprised and gratified with the large amount of water raised with little labor, 6 to 8 full strokes of the lever filling a bucket. I deem it one of the most valuable improvements of the age for raising water.

JOHN TRACY.

Pumps, With Engines.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps and Self-Regulating Wind Engine (or Mill) on one of my farms near Janesville. Well 83 feet deep. Pump and mill used together, or may be separated in a moment. One to two hours daily is sufficient to pump water for my stock. Also, the pump works very easy by hand and is the first one, after trying different kinds, that gives me entire satisfaction. Having no bolts, packing, suction pipe, or pumping rods, and being made heavy and strong, think they must be very durable. A. HOSKINS.

Janesville, Jan. 11th, 1861.

I am using a wind engine, and pump of May's patent in a well 65 feet deep. I deem them very valuable improvements, and agree with Mr. Hoskins in the above expressed opinion. I had been using a Seneca Falls pump that did not answer my purpose.

Engines.

Rock Terrace, Wis., Feb. 6th, 1861.

Since November 1858, I have been using one of May's Patent Wind Engines, pumping water from a well 180 feet deep. The Engine is a powerful one, often pumping fifty barrels of water per day. It stands 110 feet from the well and the power is communicated from the Engine to the well, underground.

I deem these Engines of great value, saving a vast amount of hard manual labor, and as their merits are understood, think they must come into general use.

J. V. ROBBINS.

These pumps and engines have taken first premiums when exhibited in competition at state and county fairs.

Write for price lists &c., and if estimates are wanted give depth of well—open or drilled, and amount of water required. Address as above.

☞ Also for sale, the Patents in the unsold territory for Badger's Portable Grist Mill, Gilmore & May's Rock Drill, Stone Dressing Machine and Quartz Rock Crusher, and Nash & Cutts' Grain Separator. All late Patents, are meritorious and sell freely. Address,
J. M. MAY, Agent, &c., as above.
